He is a member of the Senate of Nevada, and was elected in 1884. He is a native of Kentucky, and was educated at the University of Kentucky. He is a member of the Senate of Nevada, and was elected in 1884. He is a native of Kentucky, and was educated at the University of Kentucky.

NEW-YORK CITY.
"E. J. W."—This matter is still before Congress. No part of Dakota is yet admitted as a State. Marie Prescott will give her second lecture on "Among the Stars" at the Comedy Theatre to-night.

James W. Mason, hardware merchant, made an assignment yesterday to Henry C. Kelly with preferences amounting to $2,600.

John O'Rourke, age thirteen, of No. 213 East Twenty-fifth-st., was fatally injured by a heavy truck belonging to Schultz Bros., dealers in mineral waters.

The Executive Committee of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company yesterday directed a sub-committee to buy one of two vessels if the committee thought it advisable.

The East Side Chapel and Bible Women's Association was incorporated yesterday by Gertrude W. Goddard, Annie A. Butterworth, Mary Patterson, Helen A. Colgate and others.

The employees of Sheppard Knapp & Co., with their wives and children, died at their second annual ball on Friday night in Irving Hall. There was a large attendance.

The estate of Daniel C. and Ambrose C. Kingsland, to be sold at the Real Estate Exchange on Thursday, consists of several large buildings, but none of exceptionally high value.

The American Pulverizing Company has been incorporated by Willard M. Fuller, Richard N. Dyer, John C. Tomlinson and H. W. Soley. The capital is $300,000.

Miss Clara Spence will give "an evening of recreation and song" at the University Club Theatre on Thursday, assisted by Mrs. Henry H. Beebe, Mrs. Gerret Smith and William H. Beckett.

Dr. Cyrus Edison yesterday directed the seizure of 1,800 boxes of Egyptian onions in Dean's storehouse, at King and Greenwich sts. The onions were imported at great expense, over $1,000 being paid in duties.

PRACTICAL SYMPATHY FOR PAINLESS.
 The following subscriptions were received yesterday at the office of the Irish Parliamentary Fund Association, No. 20 Nassau-st.: John A. McSorley, $10; by Captain A. S. Costello, $23; F. J. & J. Schaefer Brewing Company, $100; and Andrew Clarke, $50.

MR. CARLE'S READINGS.
 George W. Carle will read his long promised Acadian story "Grande Pointe" at Chickering Hall on Monday and Tuesday mornings of this week. The Bostonian speaks enthusiastically of the reading of Mr. Carle's readings in that city and call for a repetition of the story which is soon to be given.

FATALITY IN A STREET CAR.
 "Mary McKenna," age sixty, who lives in North Second-st., Brooklyn, was run over by a Second-ave. street car, at New Chambers and Pearl-sts., yesterday. One of her ribs was fractured, her scalp was split open in several places, and she sustained several severe lacerated wounds on her body. She was taken to the Chambers Street Hospital and will die.

DISCHARGING THE PLUCKY GROCER'S CLERK.
 Justice Wolfe yesterday discharged Henry Prange, the plucky grocer's clerk, who shot and killed John, alias "Nix" Moran, on Friday, when the latter was trying to break into the store, No. 427 West Seventy-seventh-st., Charles, alias "Red" McKenna, who had also been arrested, on suspicion of having been with Moran when he was shot, was discharged.

MONEY FOUND ON A PRISONER.
 George Winters, living in Fifty-ninth-st., near First-ave., was caught by Policeman McCauley, while trying, the officer says, to break open a window of James Turner's house, at No. 7 West Fifty-seventh-st., early yesterday. In the Police Station $50 was found in the prisoner's pockets and four $100 bills were found sewed up in his clothing.

GIFTS TO THE HANCOCK FUND.
 The subscriptions to the Hancock Fund yesterday were: Henry F. Spaulding, $250; W. S. Shelton & Co., $250; Henry McCormick, Harrisburg, Penn., $100; and C. R. Ward, Northampton, Mass., $5. The amount so far received by the treasurer is $8,745. The gift of $50 by Joseph P. Little was erroneously acknowledged a few days ago as that of P. M. Haverly.

CHANGES IN THE CUSTOM HOUSE.
 Considerable stir was created in the Custom House yesterday by the removal of Chief Clerk William F. Warner, and the appointment of Frank P. Bertram in his place. John A. Mason, the editor of the "Seaboard Register," was appointed deputy collector in place of Camden O. Rockwell, who is transferred to the sixth division to succeed Benjamin F. Vinnans who was removed. William Mullins was appointed deputy collector in place of William Barry resigned.

AN INSURANCE BROKER FORGETS HIS NAME.
 An old man walked into a store at No. 67 Park Place yesterday. He seemed confused and was asked by a clerk who he was, and he replied that he would like to know who he was at where he lived. He could tell nothing about himself, and pressed his hands upon his head repeatedly. He talked gibberish, and was taken to the Chambers Street Hospital and was subsequently transferred to the insane pavilion at Bellevue Hospital. He did not remember his name, and it was found out later that he was Benjamin Haines, an insurance broker of No. 62 William-st. He lives at Elizabeth, N. J., and when he left his home in the morning appeared to be perfectly sane. He is related to Dr. Sabine of No. 8 East Twenty-fourth-st.

MATINEE READINGS BY PROFESSOR ROBERTS.
 At the Madison Square Theatre on Tuesday afternoon Professor Charles Roberts, Jr., will give the last of his matinee readings. The programme is as follows: "King John and the Abbot of Canterbury," Percy Reeves; "The Fireman's Wedding," W. A. Eaton; "The Boy Foxglove," J. C. H. Harris; "The Doctor," J. C. H. Harris; "The Willow Tree," a scenic poem in two versions, Thackeray; "Halbert and Hob," Browning; "Come over the River, with piano-forte accompaniment, Hopkin; "The Trap and my Pocket," a monologue, from the French.

BROOKLYN.
 The sixteenth anniversary exercises of the Sheltering Arms Nursery will be held in the Trinity Church to-night at 7:30. Bishop Littlejohn will preside, the Rev. Dr. W. H. Huntington, of Grace Church, Brooklyn, will deliver the address, and the reports will be read by the Rev. Dr. H. S. Hunt, rector of Grace Church, Brooklyn.

Alderman McCarty stated yesterday that the Common Council would undoubtedly order a full investigation of reports of alleged bribery in connection with the Kings County Elevated Railroad Company's petition for a right-of-way. The Council will also order an investigation of the petition for a right-of-way.

In Justice Walsh's court yesterday Mrs. Carrie Simons, who was alleged to have stolen $2,000 from the owner while attending an auction in Duane Street, was discharged.

James Powers, superintendent of the plumbing inspection bureau, Dr. John Corbin and Dr. Ernest Palmer, sanitary inspectors, were discharged yesterday by Health Commissioner Thomas. The following were discharged from the Department of City Works: J. W. Beattie, a street inspector; George B. Brannan, deputy water purveyor; Robert Swift, valve man; Michael Buchanan, Frank L. Conn and F. E. Schwedler, clerks.

TO SETTLE GENERAL HANCOCK'S ESTATE.
 Letters of administration on the estate of General Winfield S. Hancock were applied for yesterday by his widow, Mrs. Almira Hancock, at her request by General Martin J. McMahon, called upon her at her home in the afternoon and prepared the papers for her to sign. In them it is set forth that General Hancock did not leave a will, and that the value of his personal property is not more than $1,000; that she and Mrs. Almira Hancock, widow, live at Clarksville, Coahoma County, Miss., are the next of kin. She also alleged a claim for $2,000 for the value of the duties of adjutant-general. Letters will be granted as soon as two bondsmen, not yet named, qualify. The amount mentioned in the application is the value of the real estate in the estate of General Hancock. The only real property owned by him was a tract of land in Mississippi of 100 acres, in which Mrs. Hancock has a right of dower, subject to which it will be inherited by the three grandchildren. General Hancock had a life insurance policy for $10,000 in which his widow is named as the beneficiary.

FATALITY INVOLVED BY A RUNAWAY TEAM.
 A spirited team of horses attached to a coach and driven by Henry Fure, of Union-ave., Brooklyn, took fright at the Veterans' Hotel, east of the Long Island Railroad in Long Island City yesterday and dashed at a furious speed down the avenue. When on the Fifth Avenue Bridge, the driver, who was on the coach, was thrown and the driver's head struck the pavement, the head passing over his body. The frightened animal was stopped at the Greenpoint Bridge. The driver was picked up in a drug condition and removed to St. Catherine's Hospital. The occupants of the coach escaped unhurt.

THE FRANCHISE OF AN ELEVATED ROAD.
 The Kings County Elevated Railroad has been used by the Attorney-General of the State, and residing at the Veterans' Hotel, east of the Long Island Railroad as an officer of the company. They are returnable on Wednesday in the Supreme Court. The proceeding is based upon the opinion that the franchise of the railroad has lapsed. On February 23 General Winge presented Attorney-General O'Brien a petition signed by certain propertyholders for others, asking that a suit might be brought at once in behalf of the people to determine whether or not the company's franchise existed.

ANOTHER APPEARANCE OF J. A. ROSENHEIM.
 Jacob A. Rosenheim, when a member of the 22d Regiment two years ago, attained notoriety from section with the sudden departure of Cora Lent from the 22d Regiment.

the home of her parents in Peekskill, and he was charged with abducting her. A little over a year ago he eloped with Estelle Kullon, who lived with her parents at No. 128 Grand-st. A few months after that his wife left him and went for an absolute divorce. Justice Donohue of the Supreme Court, yesterday confirmed the report of Referee John P. Gave granting the divorce.

COLLEGE ATLETES IN SESSION.
 The Intercollegiate Athletic Association held its eleventh annual meeting yesterday at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.
